Re: [CSEAchapter2] My Vision for a Chapter 2 Website:

I agree with the political things that Bernie is saying. I trust that he is correct in his technical parameters.

While we are still banned, we should change our names. CSEAchapter2 and chapter2members as names sound too official. Bernie, please change the names so that chapter 2 and the State Retirees will not get credit for your work during their attacks on us.

Don't forget another issue that we had with chapter 2 (and it also happened in 165) is that they refused to have a Lavender Caucus. They even refused to have an unfunded Human Rights Committee the way that CSUS, SEIU 2579 did.

Remember, while I am still a member of Chapter 2, I am way down on the alternate delegate list because I forgot to get in my candidate statement.

Rick is a delegate from Chapter 303. So, I will be attending GC. Dick Mesa can appoint me if we are short of delegates.

Also, I now serve on the Older Women's League board. They meet at 11:30 am on the first Monday of every month. (We actually get things done there instead of playing bingo and fighting with each other.) I will miss most of Chapter 2's meetings in the future.

Love, Ir

1. The website would respect and follow international. standards, explicitly, W3 (<http://www.w3.org/>) standards.

2. The website would have a free-speech area for discussion.
3. The website would largely use large type so it is easily read by older people.
4. The website would simulate the calcsea (<http://www.calcsea.org>) website.
5. The website would contain meta tags for optimal search engine submission.
6. The website would have a site map submitted to Google, for better search engine performance.
7. The website would be submitted to many search engines.
8. The website would help bring new members.
9. The website would communicate with existing members, many of who do not come to the meetings.
10. The website would serve both the officers and the members of Chapter 2.
11. Website statistics would be available to those who use the website, so they can see how the website is doing.
12. The website would have a feedback mechanism to help it improve over time.
13. The website would from time to time be briefly presented to Chapter 2 members, so they could be aware of its features, ask questions, and make requests.

The above descriptors describe in part the website I would like to make real for Chapter 2, with the important help of Chapter 2 officers and members.

This is the thing that really tics me off. We have money and numbers but we waste it fighting each other and playing bingo. These co-pays, deductibles and restrictions are really adding up. And, Richman is going after our pensions again. I wish that our leaders would wake up. Ir

Linda,

Chapter2.org is taken by another organization; it is not available as a website name. As I understand it, we are not banned; we are all members. and this is still free-speech America. As I understand it, J. J., President of CSEA, Dick Mesa, President of Chapter 2, Kisha Allen Robertson, CSEA Assistant Chief Counsel, myself, and possibly others will meet soon to hopefully plan a website for Chapter 2. With all of these dedicated people, I am optimistic that we will have a good result.

Fellow Unofficial Chapter 2 Email Group Members,

CORRECTED VERSION:

This Free Speech Forum will end at midnight on July 29, 2007. I am yielding to CSEA and Dick Mesa. More on this later. After midnight July 29, 2007, this webpage will continue to exist (<http://finance.groups.yahoo.com/group/CSEACHapter2/>), but it will no longer accept new messages.

Feel free to use this Free Speech Forum while we still can. I know I will.

As usual, let's be respectful and constructive.

I love my TOTO (Japanese) Washlet S300 toilet!

Fellow Unofficial Chapter 2 Email Group Members,

I love my TOTO (Japanese) Washlet S300 toilet!

I have always hated to wipe my ass with toilet paper. Now, except when I travel, I don't have to. About six months ago I purchased a TOTO Washlet S300 toilet. I am writing to report that for me it works very well.

After you poop, you can direct the TOTO Washlet S300 toilet to spray warm water on your ass so that it is clean. I typically confirm this cleaning with a shower or a wet washcloth. I find that most of the time the TOTO Washlet S300 toilet does a fairly good cleaning job.

Using the remote control, you can also dry your butt with hot air, but this feature does not work too well.

My TOTO Washlet S300 toilet cost me about $1,800 installed. It is about $1,400 uninstalled. It requires a water line and a dedicated electrical connection. Red's Plumbing Supply at 916-457-2438. and 4520 Franklin Blvd in Sacramento helped me with information and the name and phone number of an installer.

This was an expensive device, but for me it has been worth it. People who are overweight or handicapped may find this device even more important to them.

I am sharing something that has made my life better. It is my experience that products like the TOTO Washlet S300 toilet work quite well.
